

Forever Loving Care

Newsletter

Autumn 2018

Well what can we say ...

Thank You

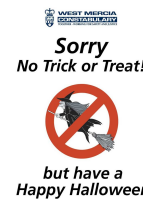

We have now been established for 4 months and what a wonderful 4 months it has been,

Over these four months we have met some wonderful people and feel privileged to have you as part of our little family.

We would like to thank each and everyone of you for your support, good wishes and feedback over these last few months, we are overwhelmed.

We look forward to providing loving care and support to you and your love ones. ♡♡

Halloween

On the reverse of this newsletter you will find a poster to place on your door

stay safe this Halloween

Welcome to our new Care Angels

Congratulations

Debby

On achieving your CACHE Level 2 in Safeguarding and Dignity

Lest We Forget

"To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die." "They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, We will remember them."

Don't Forget

Clocks go back Sunday 28th October

Good Luck

Sam, Debby and Emily who are all working towards their NVQ level 5

To ensure that we continually maintain our high standard of care we send out a Quality Survey/Questionnaires to Service User's, their families and staff. Please complete and return. These can be sent back anonymously.
